

Every child has a story ... COMET has the details

The COMET team includes our non-profit partner, Children's Institute, Inc., and focuses on the success of children. We have first-hand knowledge of the challenges child-focused organizations face. Our people have the expertise needed to deliver a data system that meets those needs, as well as the passion to understand and work with your organization to achieve your specific short and long-term goals. www.comet4children.com
