

Chemung / CIDS Project

What is the project all about?

Chemung County / Comprehensive Interdisciplinary Developmental Services, Inc. (CIDS) worked together to pilot a foundational approach to developing and maintaining a county-wide database to serve children and promote their healthy, successful futures.

Database of Children

The aim is to have all County children, with a yearly cohort of about 1,000

- 0 to 5 to begin with, possibly extended to teenagers until adulthood
- With basic information for each child
- Longitudinal data sets
- Rich instruments / assessments

Support multiple programs

- Home Visitation, Nurse-Family Partnership, School Readiness...

Support multiple Service Providers

Data Sharing Agreement enabled by Parent Consents

COMET Key Features

Rich Child profile

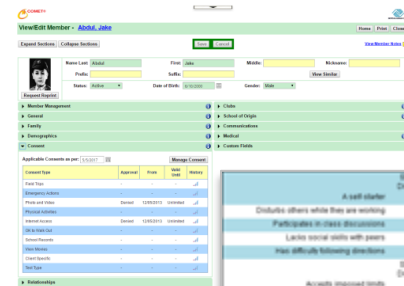

- Over 150 fields, complemented by UDF
